

DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSOR LECTURE SERIES
WANDERING IN A TIMELESS WILDERNESS:
A Feminist Scientist's Journey Through the Anthropocene

town & gown lecture

THINK FAST
LIVE SLOW

Distinguished Visiting Professor Lecture Series

Jill Schneiderman, Distinguished Visitor from Vassar College.

The University of Alberta Faculty of Arts Department of Women's and Gender Studies and WISEST invites you to attend the upcoming Distinguished Visiting Professor Lecture Series 'Wandering in a Timeless Wilderness: A Feminist Scientist's Journey Through the Anthropocene'. This Series features Distinguished Visitor Jill Schneiderman, Professor of Earth Science at Vassar College. Please click on the links below for more information on each lecture.

March 13, 2017 - Town and Gown Lecture: Think Fast Live Slow, 5:00 - 6:30pm, Telus Centre, reception to follow.

March 14, 2017 - Afternoon Lecture: Bypassing the Great Divide, 3:30 - 5:00pm, Humanities Centre L-1.

March 17, 2017 - Lunch Lecture: Environmental Justice for All, 12:00 - 1:00pm, 3-36 Tory Building, including a behind the scenes Q&A with Dr. Schneiderman from 11:00am - 12:00pm in ESB 3-01.